CAVAZOS GOES OUT; DEFEATED

To Chihuahua City, With Ears Sliced Off.

HOW Col Carlos Zuasus, and a band of 50 of his Carrancista troops fought to the death against attacking Villisias is related in El Democratz of Chihuahua city, copies of which have been received here. The massacre of the Carrancistas occurred at Santa Yaabel on the night of Sept. 26, and is described by the newspaper

Col. Zuazua occupied his private car The wounded woman and Graveor told her he had come to Philadelphia with Mrs. Belser and then persuaded her to go back to New Yark. Mrs. Le Duc said she and Graveor went to a dance on the roof garden of the hotel. She said she did not want to be encumbered with her hand bag and at Graveur's sugrestion, she left it in his room on the floor below. Mrs. Le Duc Belies Burned; Town Looted.

has rushed the car, killed everyone in-alce and then set fire to the car. After-this, the Villiatas looted Santa Yeshel and sacked the Carrancierin supply sta-tion of food and clothing. Gen. Trevino at Chibushus city, find-ing communication with Santa Yeshel-broken, sent Gen. Cavazos with his forces to investigate. Cavazos got as far as San Andres, near Santa Yeshel, when he was attacked and routed by Villa.

Survivers' Ears Cut Off.

Five survivers of the fight arrived in Chihuahua city with their ears cut off and suffering from their corts and hardships, to tell the story of the rout. Gen. Cavazos, his ears unmarred, also appeared. He said the bandits had thrown one of his officers, aire, into a well.

Portunate Zunzua, a former Villista scaeral and brother of the dead Carrancista colonel, went to Santa Yeabel to recover the body of Col. Zunzua.
